

The Third GOE Summer School Program

“Borders in Asia: Central Asia, Southeast Asia, Korea and Japan”

Date: July 31 - Aug. 7, 2012,

Venue: Slavic Research Centre, Hokkaido University, Japan

July 31	(Day 1): Japan as a Border Power in Eurasia 10:30-12:30 Akihiro Iwashita (SRC, Hokkaido Univ.) "Introduction : Japan's Border Studies and Eurasia" 14:00-15:30 Koji Furukawa (Chukyo University) "Japanese governments' policies on the borderland" 15:40-17:10 Special Session On the Road to BRIT XII
August 1	(Day 2): Borders inside the Japanese Society 9:30-11:30 Chikako Kashiwazaki (Keio University) "Zainichi Koreans and Borders inside Japanese Society" 13:00-15:00 Angelo Ishi (Musahi University) "Japanese-Brazilians or Brazilian expatriates?-- Brazilians in Japan in the context of the new 'Brazilian diaspora'" 15:30-17:30 Glenda Roberts (Waseda University) "Vocalizing the 'I' Word: Proposals and Initiatives on Immigration to Japan from the LDP and Beyond"
August 2	(Day 3): Natural, Political and Social Border in Central Asia 9:30-11:30 Jumpei Kubota (The Research Institute for Humanity and Nature) "Gaps between eco-cultural zones and political borders in Central Asia – Historical Interactions between human activities and the environment" 13:00-14:30 Igor Savin (South-Kazakhstan State University) "Interethnic relations in Central Asia and Russia, minorities, migration and integration issues" 14:45-16:15 Bakytbek Jumagulov (Public Foundation 'Institute of Peace and Development' in Central Asia) "The Problems of Borders and Ethnic Conflicts in the Fergana Valley"
August 3	(Day 4): Young Researchers' Workshop *Foreign participants will be asked to give a presentation along with a research paper and to discuss their research with Japanese graduate/post-graduate researchers.

August 4: Field Work on Sapporo

August 6 (Day 5): Borders in Southeast Asia

9:30-11:30 Nobuhiro Ihara (Kobe University)

"The Sabah Dispute: ASEAN causes and consequences"

13:00-15:00 Kimikazu Shigemasa (Kwansei Gakuin University)

"The Cambodian-Thai Border Issues – A Case for Conserving the Endangered World Cultural Heritage Preah Vihear Temple"

15:30-17:30 Sam Bateman (Nanyang Technological University)

"Maritime border issues in the South China Sea-Sovereignty as an Obstacle to Effective Maritime Governance"

August 7 (Day 6): Gender Politics in East Asia: Case Study of South Korea

Yonson Ahn (Frankfurt University)

Naomi Chi (Public Policy School, Hokkaido Univ.)

Closing ceremony, Issue of the Border Studies Certificate