

Slavic Minorities and their (Literary) Languages in the European Context and Beyond: the Current Situation and Critical Challenges

PROGRAM

DAY.1 January 30th (Fri.)

Opening Remarks: 13:10-13:15

Keynote Lecture: 13:15-14:30

"Łysohorsky's Poetic Lachian – a Museum Exhibit or a Message for the Future?"

George J. Marvan (Charles U in Prague, J.E. Purkyně U)

Session 1. Languages Emancipation in the Balkans: 14:30-16:00

Speakers: Evangelia Adamou (French National Centre for Scientific Research)

Motoki Nomachi (Hokkaido U) & Bojan Belić (U of Washington)

Session 2. Issues of Corpus Planning: 16:15-17:45

Speakers: Mira Načeva-Marvanová (J.E. Purkyně U)

Jan Maksymiuk (Independent scholar)

DAY.2 January 31st (Sat.)

Special Presentation 1. 9:30-10:45

"The Privacy of Having a Language of One's Own: Slavic Regional Standard Projects and Minority Agendas Online"

Dieter Stern (Ghent U)

Session 3. Linguistic Situations in Eastern Slovakia Today: 11:00-12:30

Speakers: Slavomír Ondrejovič (L. Štúr Institute of Linguistics of SAS)

Konstantin Lifanov (Lomonosov Moscow State U)(in RUSSIAN)

Session 4. Micro-literary Languages in European Context: 14:00-16:00

Speakers: Satoshi Terao (U of Tokyo)

Madlena Norberg (U of Potsdam)

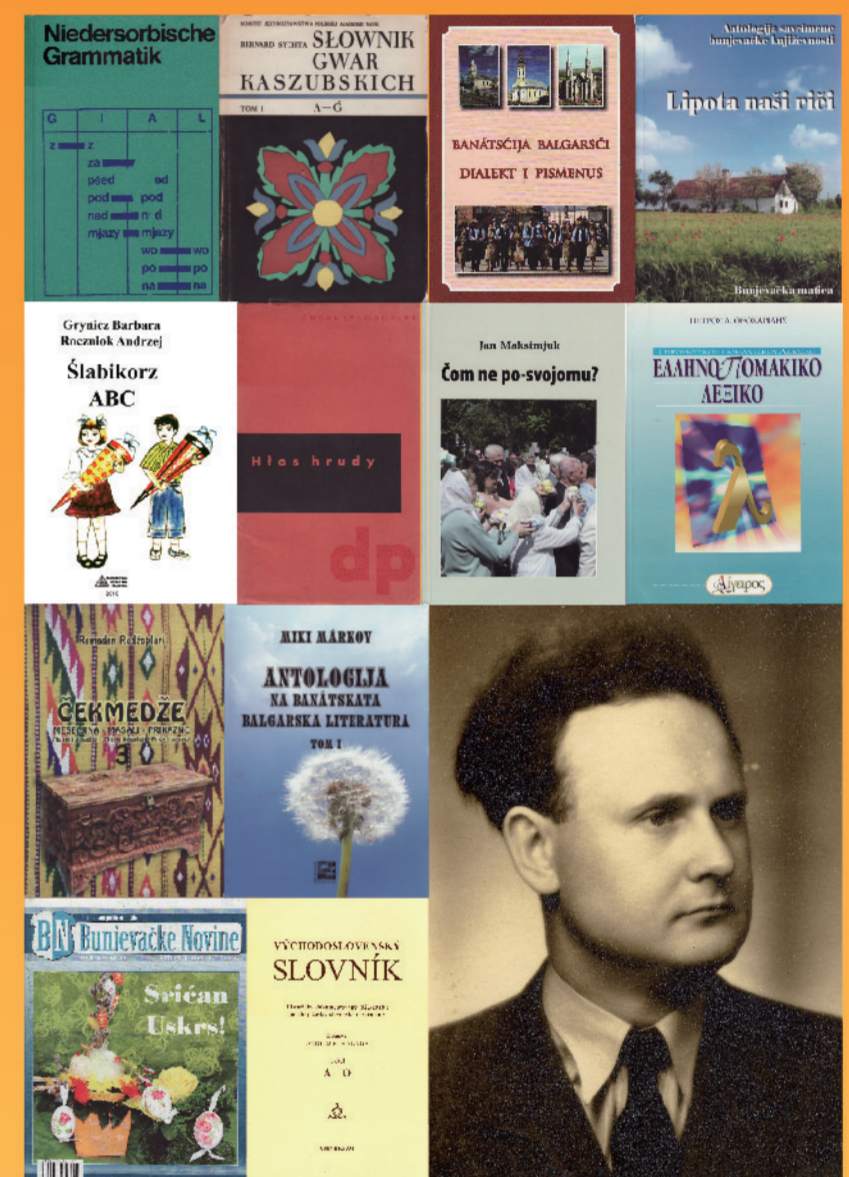

Special Presentation 2. 16:00-17:15

"The Kashubian Education Yesterday and Today"

Jaromira Labudda (Linia School)

General Discussion and Closing Remarks: 17:15-17:30

2015.
1.30-31

VENUE

Waseda University | 1-6-1 Nishi Waseda, Shinjuku-ku, Tokyo.
Waseda Campus, New 3rd Bldg., Room 701 (7th floor)

ORGANIZERS

Slavic-Eurasian Research Center (SRC), Hokkaido University, Japan
Ghent Center for Slavic and East European Studies (GCSEES), Ghent University, Belgium

SPONSORS

JSPS Grant-in-Aid for Scientific Research B "A Comprehensive Study of the Slavic Micro Literary Languages after Revolutions of 1989" (headed by Motoki Nomachi)

JSPS Grant-in-Aid for Scientific Research B "Images of East in Eastern European Literature" (headed by Ken-ichi Abe)

JSPS Grant-in-Aid for Scientific Research A 25243002 (headed by Mitsuyoshi Numano)

The Japan Society for the Study of Slavic Languages and Literatures (JSSLL)

CONTACT

Motoki NOMACHI (mnomachi@slav.hokudai.ac.jp) / Dieter Stern (Dieter.Stern@ugent.be)

